The Association is not responsible for property stored in the RV Lot or in RV Storage Units. Storage of items in the Lot, inside or outside the owner’s unit(s), or inside the storage unit, are at the owner’s risk. Owner(s) are required to provide insurance to cover loss or damage to their property. Insurance information listed above is to be updated annually. If a substitute unit(s) is acquired, I must notify the Association Office in writing before storing them in the RV Lot and include updated insurance information.

I agree that the RV Lot space described above will be used only for unit(s) stored by the member indicated above, and in accordance with all applicable Rules and Regulations.

I understand that the Rules and Regulations governing the RV Lot, including any amendments thereto, are applicable to this agreement. I understand and agree to these terms and that I am responsible for the actions and conduct of all my guests and other invitees who may enter the RV Lot by my signature below.

In the event that a Unit (vehicle, trailer, RV) or Storage Unit is abandoned, the Association retains the right to remove the item(s) at owners’ expense. SEGCC will make three attempts to notify the owner of the unit in violation: Phone call, letter mailed to residence, certified letter mailed to residence.
